JACOB VALK,
Hereby acquaints the PUBLIC in general, and his Friends in particular,
THAT, at his OFFICE, Merchants and Tradeſmen may have their Books regulated by the Month, Quarter, or Year; and, as often as needful, balanced and cloſed.

Likewiſe, Sets of Books opened properly, for Perſons newly commencing any Kind of Buſineſs, and ſuperintended with the utmoſt Care.——Alſo, Accounts relating to Partnerſhips, Planters, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Aſſignees, &c. completely ſcrutinized, and accurately adjuſted.

And, Perſons deſirous of ſettling their yearly Buſineſs expeditiouſly, by ſending their Books to him, may have it done; the different Accounts drawn out, and the Monies collected, or otherwiſe ſettled, in the moſt ſuitable Manner.

Lands, Houſes, and Negroes,
Bought and ſold at private Sale, upon the uſual Commiſſions.

Money borrowed and lent at Intereſt,
Without Expence to the LENDER, who will be entitled to Intereſt for his Money, from the Day he gives Notice to him, of having it to LET; and, ſuch as deſire it, may have their Intereſt applied for as it becomes due, without any Expence.

For SALE privately,
The following Property of BENJAMIN GUERARD,
Which he is deſirous of SELLING,
To have his Intereſt in one Place, viz.

A Very valuable Tract of 1000 Acres of Land, ſituate in Prince William's Pariſh, between Combahee and Port-Royal Ferries, having on it a Sufficiency of choice high Land for two profitable Indico Plantations; between which Two Hundred and Fifty Barrels of Rice may be made in a Year, as Ground to yield that Quantity of Barrels can be flowed with Water:—No Part of it was ever planted, but Sixty or Eighty Acres are cleared to begin one Plantation, FRESH and NEW, and therefore the BETTER and CHEAPER. It is eſteemed as fine a Tract for its Size as moſt in the Province, the up Land being high, ſo that Land Floods can never hurt the Crops of Indico and Corn thereon planted.——The Purchaſer, from the Red-Oak Trees that muſt unavoidably come down, in order to his making his Fields, may ſtrip a vaſt Number of Cords of Bark.

So complete a Tract as this, and of the like Diſtance from Charles-Town, is very rarely to be found for Sale; which would require no Recommendation, if a View by every one in Want of ſuch could be taken of it, and which, conſidering the high Price of good Lands, will be ſold cheap.——It pays no Quit-Rents, being Part of the Rich Lands included in Thomas Lowndes's Grant; and, as 'tis too late in the Seaſon to prepare for Planting for the enſuing Crop, the Purchaſer's Bond ſhall not carry Intereſt 'till Six Months from the Date are elapſed.

A delightful RETREAT,
Eight Miles by Land or Water from Town, known to be as well ſituated for Pleaſantneſs and Agreeableneſs of Proſpect as moſt Seats in the Province; on which, open to ſeveral Parts of that beautiful River, Aſhley-River, ſtands an elegant Houſe, with handſome commodious Offices.

With which will be SOLD,
The large Quantity of very genteel Furniture
Now in the ſaid Houſe.

A very eaſy and deſirable Diſtance for a Carriage and Four or Six Horſes, as a Gentleman may come to his Buſineſs in Town in the Morning, and return to his Family in the Evening.——The Inconvenience of not having ſuch a Place for a Family, is at all Times great, and much more ſo, when contagious Diſorders rage in the Metropolis, or thoſe few Months in the Year arrive, ſo deſtructive to Infants kept in Town.

It contains Three Hundred Acres of Land, and is allowed to have the beſt Paſture in the Neighbourhood (having kept all the Cattle thereabouts in good Condition for ſeveral Years paſt) of which Two are now incloſed with a ſtrong new Fence, as is alſo a Meadow for making Hay; has great Plenty of Fencing and Fire-Wood Trees, and, by a Gentleman having a Turn that Way, may be made a Place of ſome Profit as well as Pleaſure, as good Crops of Corn have been made on it, and one Year, when planted with that Grain, Sixty Barrels of Rice; but what can be more Profitable to grow on it than the Graſs it luxuriantly bears, as HAY (made with a very few Hands) is an Article of ſo great Demand in Town, and never ſells for leſs than Ten Pounds per Thouſand Weight, although often near One-Third Brambles.——It may be viewed at any Time.

His Two HOUSES in Town;
The one on the Corner of the Bay, near the Exchange, and the other adjoining, in Broad-Street, which (and that very low) rent for £. 960 per Annum, and are ſo advantageouſly ſituated for Trade, as will never be untenated;—beſides which Advantage, it is well known theſe Houſes were not built as thoſe which are intended to be Lett, no Coſt nor Pains being ſpared in getting the Materials the beſt of their Kind, which were put together in the moſt faithful and neat Manner:—The Wood Materials are of the beſt of Yellow Pine and Black Cypreſs, and the Mortar made of Freſh-Water River Gravel, ſo ſtrong a Cement as that none of the Tiles in the Great Hurricane 1752, were blown off, whilſt the Roofs of moſt of the Houſes tiled or ſlated were entirely uncovered thereby.

It has been often deſired that the Corner Houſe ſhould be made a COFFEE-HOUSE,—£. 1050 a Year Rent will be inſured, but there is no Doubt that £. 1100 can be got for them, as the Rents were never increaſed ſince the Building of the Exchange, as ſhould be.—The Terms to the Purchaſer ſhall be made as convenient as they can deſire.——Pleaſe to apply to
JACOB VALK.

From a late LONDON PAPER.

THE Tories were always a dull, credulous race of bigots and zealots, volunteers to the pulpit-drum, and ready to follow their hypocritical guides into any absurdity or danger for the honour of mother church, and the Lord's Anointed, though at the expence of truth and justice, and the clearest rights of humanity. The solemn drones appeared to be in a manner extinct, or at least had retired with tobacco smoke to the Gothic cells and mansion houses, till the present æra of Scotch favouritism revived the old doctrines, ever favourable to the ambition of tyrants, and the interest of slaves and churchmen. Indeed they had taken so sound and long a nap over their pipes and orthodox ale during the two last reigns, that had not their Scotch brethren roused them from their lethargy, goading them behind, and leading them by the nose in the front of the battle, in order to screen themselves from the odium and the danger, they would have never dared again to face their old enemies the Whigs, before the lustre of whose revolution-principles they had sunk into native obscurity like owls and bats at the approach of day-light. But my Lord Bute and his wayward compeer of the law had taken compassion on them, and we find them in the present reign of Hanoverian Jacobitism, both with brains and preferments; and the latter, to shew both his power and penetration, has taken the Judge of the meanest talents from the bench, because of a Jacobite family, and I was going to say, raised him to the Seals, when in truth he has only sunk and degentrated the Seals down to his Lordship; by which means this crafty Scot has not only retained the high and important office to the Crown, and prostituted it to ministerial, that is, to Scottish purposes, but has also made his own superior talents so necessary to the decrees of that bench, that he is by this great stroke of policy become master of a great part of the nation's wealth. If his Lordship could as easily have dealt with Juries and the inferior courts of common law, he would long ago have been as much master of its freedom; but providence has for the repose and safety of mankind marked the line, beyond which refinement is delusion, and sobriety is folly: "He taketh the wise in his own craftiness, and turneth the counsels of the froward headlong."

REGULUS.

BOSTON, JUNE 14.

LAST Wednesday his Excellency the Governor was pleased to send the following Message to the Honourable House of Representatives, viz.

"Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

"BY your Committees you have laid before me the dates of six original letters with my signature to them, which have been brought into your House and read, together with other letters from several other persons. You have also laid before me, an extract from the Journals of your proceedings, by which it appears, you are opinion, that the tendency and design of the letters thus read, was to overthrow the constitution of this government, and to introduce arbitrary power into the province.

"I find by the dates of the letters with my signature that, if genuine they must be private letters, written to a gentleman in London, since deceased; that all, except the last, were written many months before I came to the chair; that they were wrote not only with that Confidence which is always implied in a friendly correspondence by private letters, but that they are expressly confidential; notwithstanding which, they contain nothing more respecting the constitution of the Colonies in general than what is contained in my speeches to the Assembly, and what I have published in a more extensive manner to the world; and there is not one passage in them which was ever intended to refused, or which, as I am well assured the gentleman to whom they were wrote, ever understood to respect, the particular constitution of this government, as derived from the Charter.

"I am at a loss for what purpose you desire the copies of any letters, the originals of which you have in your hands. If it is with a view to make them public, the originals are more proper for that purpose than the copies. I think it would be very improper and out of character in me to lay my private letters before you at your request. My public ones I am restrained from laying before you without express leave from his Majesty. Thus much, however, I may assure you, that it has not been the tendency and design of them to subvert the constitution of this government, but rather to preserve it entire, and I have reason to think they have not been altogether ineffectual to that purpose"

JUNE 21.

On Tuesday last the Hon. House of Representatives, by a very large Majority came into several Resolves upon the Letters that had been laid before them on Wednesday the 2d Instant, the last of which is,

"Whereas this House are humbly of opinion, that his Majesty will judge it to be incompatible with the interest of his Crown, and the peace and safety of the good people of his loyal province, that persons should be continued in places of high trust and authority in it, who are known to have, with great industry, though secretly, endeavoured to undermine, alter and overthrow the constitution of the Province; Therefore,

"Resolved, That this House is bound in duty to the King and their constituents, humbly to remonstrate to his Majesty, the conduct of his Excellency Thomas Hutchinson, Esquire, Governor, and the Hon. Andrew Oliver, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor, of this Province; and to pray that his Majesty would be pleased to remove them form the government thereof.

Immediately after the Resolves were passed, the House appointed a Committee of five Men, viz. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Adams, Col. Hancock, Major Lawley and Col. Leonard, to prepare an humble petition to his Majesty, remonstrating against the conduct of his Excellency Thomas Hutchinson, Esq; Governor, and the Hon. Andrew Oliver, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor of this Province, and to pray that his Majesty will be pleased to remove them for ever from the Government thereof.

EXTRACTS from the Journals of the Hon. the House of Burgesses, in VIRGINIA, Friday, March 12, 1773.

UPON a Motion made, the House resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, upon the State of the Colony.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Bland took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Bland reported from the Committee, that they had directed him to make the following Report to the House, viz.

Whereas the Minds of His Majesty's faithful Subjects in this Colony have been much disturbed, by various Rumours, and Reports of Proceedings, tending to deprive them of their antient, legal, and constitutional Rights: And whereas, the Affairs of this Colony are frequently connected with those of Great-Britain, as well as of the neighbouring Colonies, which renders a Communication of Sentiments necessary; in order, therefore, to remove the Uneasinesses, and to quiet the Minds of the People, as well as for the other good Purposes abovementioned:

"Be it Resolved, That a standing Committee of Correspondence and Enquiry be appointed, to consist of eleven Persons, viz. the Honourable Peyton Randolph, Esq; Robert-Carter Nicholas, Richard Bland, Richard Henry Lee, Benjamin Harrison, Edmond Pendleton, Patrick Henry, Dudley Digges, Darby Cart, Archibald Cary, and Thomas Jefferson, Esquires, and six of whom to be a Committee, whose Business it shall be to obtain the most early and authentic Intelligence of all such Acts and Resolutions of the British Parliament, or Proceedings of Administration, as may relate to or effect the British Colonies in America; and to keep up and maintain a Correspondence and Communication with our Sister Colonies, respecting these important Considerations; and the Result of such their Proceedings, from Time to Time, to lay before this House.

"Resolved, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, that they do, without Delay, inform themselves particularly of the Principles and Authority, on which was constituted a Court of Enquiry, said to have been held at Rhode-Island, with Powers to transport Persons, accused of Offences committed in America, to Places beyond the Seas, to be tried."

The said Resolutions, being severally read a second Time, were, upon the Questions severally put thereupon, agreed to by the House, nemine Contradicente.

"Resolved, That the Speaker of this House do transmit to the Speakers of the different Assemblies of the British Colonies, on this Continent, Copies of the said Resolutions, and desire that they will lay them before their respective Assemblies, and request them to appoint some Person or Persons, of their respective Bodies, to communicate, from Time to Time, with the said Committee."

The General Assembly of this Province met here last Week on their Adjournment-Day, and are prorogued to Monday the 9th of August next—when, it is hoped, they will not only be allowed to act, but also to sit and do Business—for, if we continue much longer in our present Situation, without the Service of our Representatives, it is to be apprehended, that no unconstitutional ministerial Instructions whatever, can prevent a general Anarchy and Confusion.

As soon (last Thursday) as a sufficient Number of our Representatives to make a House, had met, and the Hon. Col. Powell, Mr. John Gaillard, and Dr. Farrar, had taken the usual Oaths and their Seats, the Hon. Mr. Lowndes, their Speaker, laid before them, a Letter by him received from the Speaker of the House of Burgesses in Virginia, inclosing the Resolutions of that House on the 12th of March last [see above] which being read, were unanimously approved of; and it was immediately RESOLVED,

I. "That Mr. Speaker, and any Eight of the other Members of the standing Committee of Correspondence, be a Committee, to inquire for, and obtain, Intelligence, upon the several Matters mentioned in the said Resolutions, and to correspond with the Committee appointed by the said House of Burgesses, and Committees appointed, or to be appointed, in our other sister Colonies respecting the same.

II. "That Mr. Speaker do transmit the Thanks of this House, to the Speaker and Members of the said House of Burgesses of Virginia, for communicating the said Resolutions to this House, as well as for their steady Attention to the general Interests of America."

This was all the Business our Representatives had an Opportunity to do, before they were prorogued—except, That a Committee was appointed, to bring in a Bill, at the next Meeting of the House, To prevent the counterfeiting the Paper Money of other Colonies,—and a Message sent to the Lieutenant Governor, requesting, that his Honour would be pleased to give the necessary Directions, that the Quarantaine Laws be duly complied with; and that he would direct the Attorney-General to prosecute all Offenders against the Laws respecting Fortifications, and regulating the Buildings on the Wharves fronting the Curtain-Line.

A Writ is issued, for electing a new Member to represent the Parish of St. Michael, in the Commons House of Assembly of this Province, in the Room of the late Thomas Loughton Smith, Esq. The Election Days to be the 27th and 28th Inst.

Letters from Savannah in Georgia, dated last Friday, advise, That a Brigantine from Cape-Nicola, by smuggling 20 Negroes on Shore in the Night some Days ago, and afterwards entering in Ballast, had likewise smuggled the SMALL-POX into that Province, which had actually broke out on the Plantation of John Houstoun, Esq; at White-Bluff. That his Excellency Sir James Wright, Bart. had issued a Proclamation, strictly forbidding all Communication with the said Plantation: But it was feared, the private Interest of some Individuals might preponderate, to have the Infection spread rather than stopped.

In the Morning of the 18th of last Month, Indian Corn was sold at 12*s.* per Bushel, Antigua Currency, in Antigua—and by the Arrival of 13,000 Bushels, at 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon it fell to 4*s.* 6*d.*

Friday and Saturday 27*s.* 6*d.* was demanded here for the same Grain of our Growth—while no more than 20*s.* was asked for what has been lately imported from the Northern Colonies—yet many People complain, that our Northern Neighbours extort upon and impoverish us!—It proves, that there are Men every where, to whose Avarice no Bounds can be set; and how necessary it will be for the Legislature to interpose, to prevent the most grievous of all Impositions on the poorer Part of this Community.

Lately died at St. Eustatius, Capt. William Rogers, formerly of this Town.—And at St. Christopher's, Mr. De Port, Deputy Collector of the Customs there.

The Hon. John Stuart, Superintendant of Indian Affairs in this District is returned here, from Georgia.

The Snow Mobille, Capt. M'Gillivrae, from London, is arrived at Savannah in Georgia.

A Brigantine from Jamaica for Leith, one Mason, Master, having lost her Main Mast, put into Cape-Fear to refit, about the 20th ult.

Last Thursday, Daniel Huger, Esq; Mr. Paul Townsend, and a Mr. Nisbett, of Jamaica, embarked for Philadelphia, in the Brigt. Prince of Wales, Capt. Mason.

Yesterday near 20 Passengers embarked for Philadelphia, in the Brigt. Charles-Town Packet, Capt Wright—amongst them, the Revd. William Tennent, the Revd. John Edmonds, Mrs. Edmonds, Mrs. Lesesne, the Widow of Mr. Isaac Lesesne, and Son, Mr. John Scott, (Attorney at Law) and Mrs. Scott, Dr. Mayer, and Mrs. Mayer, Paul Hamilton, Esq; Mr. William Dillwyn, Mr James and Miss James, Capt. On GAMING.

THE antient Gaming was inſtituted by the civil power, who thought, that under a proper Regulation, it might not only be a private amuſement, but a public benefit. The Olympic games of Greece were deſigned merely to promote honour and exerciſe, and therefore a pine wreath or a parſley garland fully ſatisfied their deſires: In proceſs of time, indeed, they who were moſt ſucceſsful had penſions from the public for life, but yet their gaming was not to be blamed, as the inſtitution was noble, and the intent good; happy had it been for mankind, had their diverſions continued in the ſame innocence and ſimplicity; but as the age grew more corrupt, inſtead of playing for ſome reward due to their merit, men made the whole intent of their gaming to be lucre. From an inordinate avarice, what ſhould have been an amuſement grew into a ſcandalous art; and, from a pretence of avoiding being intirely idle, they became intirely wicked.

Two things the moſt conducive to the life and well-being of men, are Time and Treaſure, and of both theſe gaming deprives them: For they who are infatuated with an itch of play, cannot be quiet without it; it is the ignis fatuus which ſtill allures them on to deſtruction. A man who loves gaming may think it a ſufficient excuſe that every man has ſome one folly, and that is his; and if he indulges himſelf at play, to make amends, he is neither a drunkard or a whoremaſter: But let me tell him, that in his one ſingle vice, he has all the inconveniencies of the other two: He who is a cully to a gaming table, may as well be one to a harlot; he minds as fondly ſome lucky ſpots on the dice as the other could dottingly admire the alluring eyes of a woman: For that, he neglects all other occaſions; his buſineſs, his friends, his children and his wife; and though he may not be intoxicated with wine, he does at play what the drunkard does at drinking; plays down the evening ſtar, and plays up the morning one: The ſun may make his circuit round the world, and yet find him in the ſame room and at the ſame table, with the ſame earneſt looks, and the ſame anxiety at his heart. And to what purpoſe is all this? To be a loſer if he ſhould even win: For if he wins, it makes him wanton with his good fortune, and enters him into new ways of extravagance, which makes prodigality habitual, and poverty the almoſt certain conſequence.

There is a folly in this vice which makes it exceed all others, that is, there is no ſenſible natural pleaſure in the action of it; for what pleaſure can it convey to the ear or to the eye, to hear two pieces of bone rattle together in a box, or to ſee a ſquare run round, and the fortune we are poſſeſſed of ſlung into a lottery to try whether we ſhall hold it any longer or not.

I ſhould think it a proper antidote to this malady, for any [illegible] be a witneſs of what heats, what fears, what diſorders, [illegible] madneſs and vexation an unlucky hand at play plunges [illegible] men into; ſure they would never hazard their own peace [illegible] mind to run the danger of ſuch phrenzies by playing, which diſcompoſe the whole frame of our nature, and render men incapable of their reaſon, their honour and humanity. What miſchiefs does it not produce? What a chain of the worſt ills immediately flow from it? From a chagrin it raiſes anger, from anger flow oaths, imprecations, rage; from rage, injuries, quarrels, wounds and death.

As ſevere as I may ſeem againſt Gaming, I am not an enemy to recreations; the cares and labours of the world require them; but all that I would have mankind beware of is, that they would not make their recreation a kind of trade, but to play for no more than they may loſe with content, and without prejudice to themſelves or others.

Part of a Letter by Voltaire, laſt Year, to the late Earl of Cheſterfield, which may be depended on as genuine.

YOU deſire to have my thoughts on the preſent ſtate of Europe; I rather, now, expected you would have aſked my opinion about other matters which I happened to be thinking of, when your laſt letter was brought me by Mr. S.

It took two or three of the firſt years, after your Paris peace, before the rulers of kingdoms and ſtates could think themſelves relieved, or at eaſe, from the inroads of the wild beaſts of the foreſt. Three years more were taken up in making fences. The reſt, even to this day, has been employed in ſharpening weapons. One I ſuſpect has laid a train of ſuch a dangerous nature, as muſt ſoon kindle into flame, and ſet the whole Houſe on Fire.

We ſhall not probably ſtay to ſee much of it.

Your ſpot has already paſſed its meridian; luxury has taken root; the unexpected wealth got from the poor of a diſtant country, by robbery, has changed the bulwark of the Engliſh conſtitution, your Houſe of Commons. The people who have ruled your young King and the kingdom, never were taught the right idea of what we uſed to define liberty. Such blindneſs and obſtinacy, or what is worſe, is doubtleſs permitted.

Proviſions, which I find by your public papers are dear in England, will not be lower till taxes on the induſtrious are leſſened, and that cannot happen till your national debt is reduced. The rulers of Europe, I am afraid, have it now in their Power to prevent that event. If I was one of the band I could ſoon find the turnpike road.

In the midſt of your nation's folly and blindneſs, I can ſee a new world opening that will prove an aſylum for all your honeſt induſtrious people, and I think a few years will diſcover the iſland of Britain to have, for its inhabitants, only two ſorts of animals, Tyrants and Slaves.

THE growing Importance of the College of NEW-JERSEY, (for the Uſe of which the above Lottery is principally deſigned) is now generally known through every Province of America. It has hitherto ſubſiſted, and been raiſed to its preſent Situation, entirely by the Favour of the Public. The Succeſs which has attended the vigorous Efforts already made, to raiſe its Funds, and furniſh the Means of a complete and finiſhed Education, to all who are ſent to it, has encouraged thoſe concerned in the preſent Attempt; eſpecially as ſeveral very judicious Perſons have warmly recommended it, ſignifying their Surprize, that at a Time, when ſo many have taken this Method of promoting public Undertakings, a SEMINARY, of ſuch Importance, ſhould not alſo put in for a Share of the general Benevolence. This, added to the other Schemes for the Support and Improvement of the College, will afford ſo many Friends of that Inſtitutoin, an Opportunity of contributing with very little Riſk of loſing, and a conſiderable Chance of Gain to themſelves, who would not incline that the ſmall Sums they could ſpare, ſhould appear in a Subſcription Paper.
